

Transfer questions to/from Wa Ale Island Resort

All boat transfers will all depart at 2pm from Kawthaung and 8am from Wa Ale Island Resort on Saturdays and Tuesday. (The boat will arrive into Kawthaung approximately between 10-11am)

Private transfers outside of these dates for $250 per person Round Trip or $170 per person per way will also depart and arrive at these times.

It takes around 2-3 hours depending on the weather each direction.

Important Note: There may be times where the weather affects transfers from Kawthaung to the island. For guest safety we will privately transfer guests two hours North of Kawthaung to Aung Ba and arrange boat transfer to the island. (One hour by boat)

Please note:

It is approximately 2-3 hours from the island to the Kawthaung Jetty.

It is approximately 20-25 from the Kawthaung Jetty to Ranong. (And then please allow time for passport control on both Myanmar and Thailand side)

It is approximately 30 minutes from the Ranong Jetty to the Ranong Airport.

Boat Information:

Description of Wa Ale Yacht: The guest boat is a Azimut 55-meter yacht which has 3 beautiful cabins, indoor air-con, kitchen, living area, flybridge and seating for 14 people.

Description RIB transport: Used only in high seas and weather-related transfers for guests. Otherwise this boat will be on Wa Ale as our dive boat + excursion. This boat has 8 luxury seats and can go up to 40 knots.

In addition- Wa Ale will offer:

- 5.5 M RIB can be used for dive and excursions
- 3.6M RIB to be used around Mangrove for patrolling snorkelers and to take to snorkeling locations around Wa Ale