Liability

- Found items, in particular those left behind in the room by guests (provided that these are not obviously worthless), will be sent to the guest only upon request, and at the risk and expense of the guest. After being held for a period of one year, the lost property shall be regarded as abandoned, and the Hotel may make use of these items at its discretion, or may destroy them.
- For property damage suffered by a guest, the Hotel is only liable if the damage occurred within the scope of the business and if the Hotel or its employees displayed gross negligence.
- Valuables are brought to Savoy Hotel at the guest's sole risk. The Savoy Hotel and/or the management accept no liability, and shall not be responsible for any loss or damage thereto, and guests remain solely responsible for the safekeeping of any such items.
- If the guest is provided with a parking space in the hotel garage or in another area, even for a fee, this shall not constitute a contract for safe keeping. All liability for items left in the car is excluded.
- The house rules are binding upon all guests. By accessing the pool and other facilities, each guest acknowledges the regulations and instructions for safe use of the equipment and facilities. The Savoy Hotel will not accept responsibility or liability for any injury, loss, fatality or damage whatsoever caused to any person or property.

By signing below, both parties agree to enter into the contract with goodwill and agree to adhere to the stipulated terms and conditions.
