Yangon Signature Tour-ONE

Wednesday

0830 hours pick up from your hotel and we transfer to starting point at Sule Pagoda, Mahabandolla Park. From here, we follow our signature Tour inclusive of: Independent Monument, Central Telegraph Office, High Court, Custom House, Strand Hotel. History of Yangon, learn about incredible history of Yangon, Ancient Kings and beautiful Pagodas, Colonisation, the rise of rubber, timber and rice trade and Myanmar in WWII. We will also have chance to understand the Architecture of Yangon, Ancient Burmese, Art Deco and Modern Myanmar.

Next heading to Chinatown to experience the morning local fresh market around 18th Street, where you will see the sight and sound of local. Visiting a local fresh market in Yangon is one of the top things to do. You get to experience so much local life, and see what goes into the local food, which is a major part of life. The best spot about this market in Yangon is that, despite the busyness of the market and vendors selling in the middle of the road, small delivery vehicles will still pass through.

Based on interesting, next visit to Synagogue (NOTE: SUNDAY is closed). It is open daily with 1time per day for visitors from 10:00 to 14:00. The temple stands nestled between Indian paint shop and Muslim traders near the city centre.

Return back to hotel for lunch break and relax to avoid the heat. (Lunch is clients own account)

15:00 hours our guide picks up you from hotel and transfer to pier and local ferry to Dala about 15minutes. During on cruising, there will be local people who is selling the things (such as: soft drink, fruit, cigar etc..) on boat. Upon reaching Dala, travel by local trishaw through the town, visit the Market, and chit-chat with local people. The trip to Dala is shutterbug's delighted as it is full of scenic spots and natural beauty. There is a wide gap between Yangon life and the life of the people at Dala. The most outstanding thing is that these charming people extend their hospitality with enormous smiles. Ferry back to Yangon around sunset and finally enjoy the Chinatown nightlife tour including street food/ dinner and local beer.
